Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. In this instance Sinclair is forcing local stations to air a piece of propaganda that serves the owner's interests, not the local people.

Please stop this flagrant abuse of Sinclair's privlage. Thank you, Karen Frykman